

Home-style Alaska pollock strips by Mowi

Juicy Alaska pollock strips in a home-style coating. Tapping into the 'snacking & sharing' food trend the southern fried Alaska pollock strips are ideal as finger food and open up new ways and moments of consumption for fish. The light flour coating offers a pleasant bite without a fatty mouthfeel. The sophisticated coating process makes the product suitable to be sold in Modified Atmosphere Packaging (MAP) from the chilled fish shelves in the supermarket. Thanks to this process the product keeps its high scores on both food safety and sensory quality during the full length of its shelf life.
